

The Charter Review Committee will be looking at policy choices about city government structure in areas such as the authority and responsibilities of the Mayor, Council, City Manager and Judge; legislative authority regarding ordinance adoption; elections as they relate to terms of office and qualifications; and the municipal court. This committee will not be changing laws or the code. The committee will present any recommended amendments to the Council for consideration. The Council will then determine whether to put the amendments on the ballot. Any changes to the Charter must be voted on by City residents.
