7. INFORMATIONAL

A. Presentation – 2023 Annual Report to State Library

Director Wiley stated that as a legally established public library per ORS 357.417, Roseburg Public Library is required to submit its annual statistical report to the State Library of Oregon by October 31, 2023. The report includes data regarding staff, revenue and expenditures, collections, services, technology, facilities and other information.

The agenda packet included links to this year's draft report and last year's final report. It is available for review on the library's website at www.roseburgpubliclibrary; click on Library Resources.

Director Wiley shared a PowerPoint presentation with some of the information from the report, which included statistics gathered in fiscal year 2023 (July 1, 2022, through June 30, 2023).

Commissioner comments and questions included whether the library is a non-profit and how donations are credited.

Director Wiley clarified that the Library is a government agency and donations are used for a number of projects unless a specific direction is given by the donor.

B. 2023 Summer Reading Program

Director Wiley reported the program was a great success, and she thanked the fiscal sponsors, donors, volunteers, staff and participants. Some statistics were included in the agenda packet.

Librarian Ropp reported that participation in programs has increased and changes in programming for next year have not yet been determined.

C. Monthly Statistics

Director Wiley presented the monthly statistics. She noted a 10 percent increase in checkouts of physical materials compared with July with significant increases in door count and public computer use. She stated she was pleased with the checkouts of youth materials, which totaled almost 59 percent of all circulation. She commended Librarian Ropp for her collection development skills and ability to connect patrons with materials.

D. Fall Programming

Director Wiley reported the library partnered with the Umpqua Valley Audubon Society on September 6 for a Facebook Live program with wildlife artist Ram Papish.

The library and the Audubon Society will team up again for an in-person program about sea otters with the Elakha Alliance on Wednesday, October 11 at 6:30 p.m.

The library will welcome Mark Yaconelli for a one-hour interactive workshop titled "How Stories Can Save Us." Yaconelli is the author of "Between the Listening and the Telling: How Stories Can Save Us." Thanks to Commissioner Elder for connecting us to Yaconelli.

Director Wiley reported most of the library's programs for adults this fall will focus on delivering basic technology classes. This is to fulfill the requirements of a digital literacy grant the library received from the Public Library Association. The schedule is available on the library's website and in person. It was included in the library article in Sunday's News Review, and it will be posted on social media. AmeriCorps member Sala will deliver most of the programs with assistance from Director Wiley and Library Aide Ward Deffebach, who speaks Spanish.

Librarian Ropp reported that increased participation for fall programs is anticipated; there will be two (2) story times this year on Wednesdays and Thursdays, there will be a Girls Who Code class, an artist exploration class, and a student book club through the Great Stories Grant. The Girls Who Code class is open to all genders and for third through fifth graders. The artist exploration class incorporates reading about an artist and creating artwork using the techniques learned.

Commissioner comments and questions included the age range for the coding class and clarification of the artist exploration class.

Director Wiley stated library programs are listed on the library's website at www.roseburgpubliclibrary.org; click on Events Calendar. Information also is posted on the library's Facebook and Instagram pages, the library's weekly newsletter and the library's weekly article in the News Review.

E. Grants Update

Director Wiley reported the library submitted a final report to the Roundhouse Foundation for a $5000 grant for the Summer Reading Program.

The library submitted an application for $5700 to the Roundhouse Foundation to fund nine workshops for ages 9 and up with anime artist Carlos Nieto III.

Director Wiley stated she is working on a grant application to the American Library Association to host a traveling exhibit titled "Americans and the Holocaust." The project would include four public programs. The application is due in October; if awarded, the project would be delivered sometime between 2024 and 2026.

F. Hours of Operation Update

Director Wiley reported the library will extend its hours of operation to 8 p.m. on Thursdays beginning in October. Library hours will be Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Thursdays from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.; and Fridays and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.
